Make Any Hook Your Own.

Use the white template. Replace the brackets with your own details. The gray text shows an example.

01 Pick One Person And One Problem.

Name who you’re talking to and the specific frustration, question or goal your post will address.

02 Name The Unanswered Question.

What does the viewer still need to know: the reason, method or reveal? Keep that gap open when you adapt the hook.

03 Fill In The Brackets.

Replace every bracketed prompt with a specific detail from your niche. Remove the brackets and read the hook aloud.

04 Deliver On The Opening.

Follow the hook with your own example, evidence or useful next step. Use only claims you can support.

ONE HOOK. THREE NICHES.

Things I learned from [a person or experience].

Example: Things I learned from my flight attendant sister.

FITNESS	Things I learned from training before my kids wake up
BUSINESS	Things I learned from my first five client calls
PARENTING	Things I learned from letting my toddler help make dinner

Use the example only if it is true for you. Then share what you actually learned.

Choose one hook. Write three versions. Use the clearest one.
